The Bylaws of the Oregon Golf Association state “A Member shall be a “Golf Club” which is affiliated with a “Golf Course”. A “Golf Club” for the purpose of these Bylaws is an organization of at least twenty-five (25) individual members (each being 18 years of age or older) that operates under bylaws with committees (including a handicap committee), which Golf Club is located in the State of Oregon or in counties located in the State of Washington, which counties border the Columbia River. “Each Golf Course shall have the right to be represented by not more than two (2) Directors.”

The appointment of your club’s OGA Director is an important action. Your Director serves as the liaison with the OGA in order to facilitate communication between our two organizations as well as representing your club by voting on important issues that come before our OGA Executive Committee at the Annual Meeting. If your current Director has been an effective liaison and has fulfilled their responsibilities, we recommend they be reappointed. The position of OGA Director should be a stable appointment.
